

For sprinkler and standpipe contractors in New York City

Linden Commercial Annex, Queens — the contractor field is blank.

Borough Fire Protection · Linden Commercial Annex, Queens · DOB NOW job filing

Contractor not listed

The filing lists a sprinkler alteration and no contractor. A blank field is not an open job; it is a field the applicant has not filled in yet.

Location	Linden Commercial Annex, Queens
Work on record	sprinkler alteration
Contractor field	blank when RiserScout read the filing on September 10, 2026

Source extract

Linden Commercial Annex job filing, contractor field
Queens. Sprinkler alteration. Contractor: not filled in.

Your next step

Note it and check again next week; the brief will show the change if one is filed.

What this does not tell you

Who will get the work, what it pays, or whether a bid is being taken — a blank field says none of that.
